- HOME RUN RULE: Applies in any fenced park. "Match Plus Two". All other homeruns (over the fence) batter is OUT.
- BALLS & STRIKES will be called using a mat. Using the Worth mat with the homeplate cutout. Mats will be provided.
A legally pitched ball hitting the mat is a strike. A pitched ball hitting the homeplate is a ball.
Batter stepping on the plate is out, stepping on the mat is NOT out. Batters box in effect.
- COED - 175 FOOT RULE: is not in use. Outfielders may be positioned anywhere in the OUTFIELD. See below.
- COED: No outfielder may make a force out on the batter-base runner at first base, nor may an outfielder relay the ball in order to make a force out on the batter-base runner at first base. No penalty for attempting to throw the batter-base runner out.
- FIVE MAN INFIELD: A team may play with a 5 player (or more) infield by moving in an outfielder.
A player will be deemed an "outfielder" if they are playing a defensive position that would be on the grass on a normal softball diamond. The umpire should be informed when a team elects to play a 5 player (or more) infield.
- COED - WALK: if a male is walked (regardless of the count) with a female following, male batter gets second base and female must bat. With a male following, the batter is only awarded first base.
- DEFAULT FIRST TWO GAMES; Any team that defaults the first two games is eliminated;
- PROTESTS: All protests must be in writing and must be received within thirty (30) minutes of the end of the game. Each protest must be accompanied by $150.00 (cash or money order). PROTEST FEE IS REFUNDED ONLY IF THE PROTEST IS UPHELD. Protest should include Team Name, Division, Player Name(s), Diamond and Game Time. Umpire must be notified and sign the scoresheet, as per SPN.
- RSPA LEAGUE TEAMS: Please note the different rules:
 - Courtesy runner, cannot use the same runner twice.
 - Female batter must bat if preceding male batter is walked. Male still gets second base if followed by a female.

CONDUCT: All players and coaches will conduct themselves in a sportsmanlike manner at all times. Any harassment, verbal or physical, towards umpires, game officials, tournament executives or opposing teams will not be tolerated.

Do not call for game times or parks!

ALCOHOL: DRINKING IS NOT PERMITTED IN CITY PARKS. VIOLATORS WILL BE CHARGED BY THE POLICE AND WILL BE DISQUALIFIED FROM THE TOURNAMENT.

You must report scores after every game. Any scores not reported in a reasonable time will be posted as 0-0.
